The merger of the contigu win sugar estates on the Island of Maul which has been more or less a subject of negotiation for a year and a half, has been brought to the front again by the visit of Edw. Pollitz, who is heavily interested in Hawalian Commercial, Mr. Polifiz does not say that he came to Hawall for the purpose of aiding in the consummation this project, but he does deny that there has been any hitch in negotiations which require the services of an arbitrator or appraiser. "There are no differences that I know anything about," said Mr. Pollitz this morning The statement in the papers that an appraiser had been resorted to settle lifferences was news to me."

At the agency headquarters it is stated that there are no developments in the merger proposition. Mr. Politz will go to Maul to look ver the properties either this week or
